

October Meeting

The History of Markovnikov and His Rule

Speaker: Dr. David Lewis, Chemistry Historian and winner of 2019 Markovnikov Medal, Professor at UW-Eau Claire

When: Wednesday, October 2nd
5:00pm: Executive board meeting
6:00pm: Dinner
7:00pm: Speaker

Where: Shoreview Public Library, Community Room
4560 Victoria St. N, Shoreview, MN 55126

Cost: $12 / $5 students

RSVP: Please sign up by Friday, September 27th at noon. Limited to first 90 registrants

Menu: Potbelly box lunch - Toasted sandwiches (ham, turkey or mediterranean/veggie) with chips, soda and an oatmeal chocolate chip cookie

Abstract: Many key contributions to the field of chemistry happen to have been made by Russians. Specifically, in the field of organic chemistry, the history of Russian influence is hard to overstate. The winner of the 2019 Markovnikov medal from Moscow State University will speak on Markovnikov, the origin of his famous rule, and his experiences examining Markovnikov's laboratory notebooks.